

INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIP AGAINST CORRUPTION IN SPORT

IPACS TAKES IMPORTANT DECISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

During its annual meeting on 8 November 2022, IPACS discussed important topics, including the finalisation of the Governance Guidelines, the outcomes of the recent workshops on Games-related procurement, the launch of a network composed of criminal justice authorities and sports organisations, and the new composition and expansion of the Steering Committee. The latter has welcomed two new governments, one new sports organisation and an athletes' representative.

Learn more →

IOC-OECD international workshops on Olympic Games-related procurement

The effective delivery of infrastructure and associated services for the Olympic Games was the focus of two dedicated webinars in October. The webinars brought together experts from the OECD, the IOC, the organisers of Paris 2024, Milano Cortina 2026 and Los Angeles 2028, and public authorities.

Discover more →

IPACS on the road

Over the last few months, IPACS partners have continued to participate in a number of important events to raise awareness about the fight against corruption in sport and invite more stakeholders to join the partnership for coordinated and efficient action.

Find out more →

Discover the latest output by the Task Forces

During 2022, the IPACS Task Forces, all of which work on developing actionable solutions to address specific areas of corruption in sport, have made some good progress.

Learn more →

Corruption is
a crime

Watch the new video clip about IPACS!

IPACS has just released a new two-minute video clip which presents the origins, mission, stakeholders and activities of the partnership in an entertaining format. It will be made available to all IPACS partners as a useful tool for presentations and other communication opportunities.

Go to the clip →

PREVENTING COMPETITION MANIPULATION

International Olympic Committee

OLYMPIC MOVEMENT CODE ON THE PREVENTION OF THE MANIPULATION OF COMPETITIONS

Extract of the IOC Code of Ethics

The updated OM Code PMC is out now

In September, the IOC Executive Board adopted an amended version of the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions, following a thorough review by a dedicated working group. This Code forms part of the Olympic Charter and needs to be observed by the Olympic Movement, just like the World Anti-Doping Code.

Learn more and view the document →

OM Unit PMC on the road

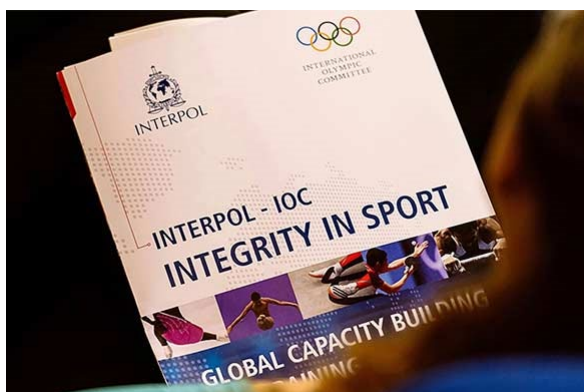

Lately, the OM Unit PMC has taken part in a number of events in order to share its know-how with other experts and contribute to policy discussions about the prevention of competition manipulation.

Find out more →

Preventing competition manipulation at multi-sport events

The OM Unit PMC has supported awareness-raising measures at the recent 2022 Commonwealth Games, the European Youth Olympic Festival and the South American Games.

Learn more →

NOCs keep benefitting from IOC-INTERPOL programme

NOCs are continuing to participate in educational seminars put on jointly by the IOC and INTERPOL, aimed at improving cooperation between state authorities, law enforcement bodies and sports organisations at national level.

Discover NOC action →

International and Continental Federations in action

Over the last few months, several International and Continental Federations have accelerated their activities to protect the integrity of their respective sports. Here is a snapshot!

Find out more →

Contact us & Privacy Policy

Tell us your comments and questions about this newsletter!

Please write to: OMUnitPMC@olympic.org

The IOC will use your email address only for the purpose of this newsletter and similar information campaigns. For more information, see our Privacy Policy. If you do not wish to continue receiving this newsletter you can unsubscribe.

International Olympic Committee
Maison Olympique, 1007 Lausanne, Switzerland
©2023 International Olympic Committee.
All rights reserved.