A NEW WAY TO EXPERIENCE TICKETING AND HOSPITALITY AT THE OLYMPIC GAMES

HOW TO ACCESS TICKETS AND HOSPITALITY FOR THE OLYMPIC GAMES

Whether you simply want tickets to watch your favourite athletes compete at the Games, or you're looking for a complete, ticket-inclusive hospitality package to enjoy a truly special Olympic experience, there is now a new, safer and simpler way to attend and share the excitement of the Games.

The Olympic Games Paris 2024 will be the first to implement the centralised global sales model for ticketing and hospitality, and will be followed by Milano Cortina 2026 and Los Angeles 2028.

Tickets

Fans around the world will be able to buy tickets through a single, dedicated platform, operated and managed by the Organising Committees.

Hospitality Packages

Working together with the Organising Committees, On Location – a global leader in the hospitality business – is the sole hospitality provider and will deliver world-class hospitality experiences for fans and Olympic stakeholders alike.

BUY ONLY FROM OFFICIAL SOURCES

By buying tickets or hospitality packages outside the official channels, the buyer runs the risk that tickets or packages are not delivered to them or are cancelled by the Paris 2024 Organising Committee in accordance with the terms and conditions. In addition, all buyers are informed that unauthorised sale or re-sale of tickets outside the official channels constitutes an offence under French law.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN TICKETS AND HOSPITALITY?

Tickets allow fans to attend one or more events during the Olympic Games. Due to the significant demand at each edition of the Games – and to guarantee a transparent and fair process, with equal chances for everyone – fans must apply to enter a lottery system in order to purchase tickets.

Hospitality offers standard or customised packages that include guaranteed tickets, access to on-site hospitality venues, as well as travel, accommodation, and unique cultural, gastronomic and sporting activities, for those looking for a truly unforgettable Games-time experience.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF THE GLOBAL MODEL?

This new centralised model for ticketing and hospitality offers many benefits for fans and other Olympic stakeholders, including:

- A simplified, transparent, fair and secure process for fans around the world to attend the Olympic Games
- Truly global access to tickets and hospitality packages
- Hospitality packages available for almost all sports and sessions
- The chance to access innovative, high-quality hospitality offerings
- A consistent system from one Games edition to the next

The Official Paris 2024 Hospitality Programme will be divided into four main pillars.

HOSPITALITY ON-SITE (IVH)

High-quality, in-venue hospitality services will be delivered within the security perimeter of competition venues in a private or shared lounge or a skybox.

Three different service levels will be available: Gold, Silver and Bronze.

HOSPITALITY IN THE CITY (OVH)
