Olympic Winter Games Beijing 2022
Accreditation Terms and Conditions

My accreditation to the XXIV Olympic Winter Games (respectively the “Accreditation” and the “Games”), and the issuance of an Olympic Identity and Accreditation Card (the “OIAC”) or a “Guest Pass” (including the “Training Access Pass”) are subject to my agreement to and compliance with the following terms and conditions (the “Terms and Conditions”), established by the International Olympic Committee (the “IOC”) and the Beijing Organising Committee for the 2022 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games (“Beijing 2022”):

1. I agree to comply with the Olympic Charter, the IOC Code of Ethics (including, in particular the Rules on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions applicable to the Games), the measures and rules aiming at protecting the health of the participants and ensuring the safe staging of the Games (including in particular to mitigate the risks related to the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) or other infectious diseases transmission) as included in the set of rules and instructions (including any update thereof) developed by Beijing 2022, Chinese authorities, the IOC and other entities involved in the implementation of such measures (the “Playbooks”) which are available on the Beijing 2022 website (see https://olympics.com/ioc/beijing-2022-playbooks) as well as any further regulation, decision, instruction or specific obligation communicated by the aforementioned entities or my responsible organisation that may apply to me. I agree that my strict compliance with the above rules, in particular those included in the Playbooks (as well as with any further instruction issued by Beijing 2022, Chinese authorities or the IOC) is a condition to be granted and to maintain my Accreditation, OIAC and/or Guest Pass (including the Training Access Pass).

2. I acknowledge and understand that certain measures implemented by Beijing 2022, the Chinese authorities, the IOC and other entities involved in the implementation of such measures, including those measures included in the Playbooks, may be considered as medical acts subject to my express consent and may require the collection and processing of my personal data, including health-related information. I agree that such personal data may be shared primarily with Beijing 2022 and the Chinese authorities, and, where necessary, with the IOC, my organisation, medical service providers and other entities involved in such measures. In that context, I further agree that, insofar as my consent is required to a medical act and/or authorisation to the processing of my personal data, the absence of such consent and/or authorisation will be considered as a refusal to comply with the rules or instructions referred to in §1 above and may therefore result in the consequences foreseen in §6 below.

3. I have read and understood the information regarding the processing of my personal data included in the “Information Notice on the Processing of Personal Data of Participants and other Accredited Persons” (see Annex 1 below which forms integral part of these Terms and Conditions). I further acknowledge that complementary information regarding the processing of my personal data in the context of the Playbooks and the measures described in §2 above is further described in Annex 2 below and confirm having read and understood such complementary information.

4. I agree that I am attending the Games (including the travel to/from the Games and its preparations) at my own risk and under my own responsibility and that it is impossible to fully eliminate the relevant risks (including those referred to in §1 above), the impact of such risks and/or of the measures to address those risks on my participation to and, where applicable, performance in the Games, despite all care taken by Beijing 2022, Chinese authorities, the IOC and any other competent authorities. To the fullest extent admissible under applicable laws, I irrevocably release Beijing 2022, the IOC (and their respective members, directors, officers, employees, volunteers, contractors or agents) from any liability for any kind of loss, injury or damage that I may suffer or be exposed to in connection with my participation in the Games.

5. With regard to the capture and use of images on the occasion of the Games, further described in Annex 3 below which forms integral part of these Terms and Conditions:
   a. I agree to be photographed, identified or otherwise recorded by the IOC, Beijing 2022 or third parties authorised by them, and that such recordings can be used in a commercial or non-commercial manner, for the maximum duration permitted by law, in any format/media, for the promotion of the Olympic Movement;
   b. I agree to assign all intellectual property rights in still and moving images and/or sounds that I may take or record, created within, or from the Games' areas and venues (“Content”) to the IOC – without further authorisation from, or compensation to, me or anyone acting on my behalf –, granting the right to make derivative works and waiving any moral rights and
   c. I acknowledge that the IOC grants me a revocable license to use the Content for personal/private and non-commercial/non-promotional purposes compliant with the IOC Social and Digital Media Guidelines (see https://olympics.com/ioc/documents/olympic-games/beijing-2022-olympic-winter-games) and other applicable requirements of the IOC, and that I shall only use the Content in a manner consistent with such license.

6. I understand that the OIAC, the Guest Pass (including the Training Access Pass) are the property of the IOC. I further acknowledge that my Accreditation, OIAC and Guest Pass (including the Training Access Pass) can be removed with immediate effect in the IOC’s full discretion, in particular in case I refuse to agree with and/or do not respect the Terms and Conditions.

This includes, without limitation, Guest Passes for the Olympic Villages, International Broadcast Centre, Main Press Centre, Olympic Family Hotel and competition venues, and Training Access Passes for training and competition venues.

f. “IOC” means the International Olympic Committee.

g. “IOC’s Affiliates” means any entity, now existing or to be created, which is directly or indirectly controlled by the IOC, including without limitation Olympic Broadcasting Services SA (Switzerland), Olympic Broadcasting Services S.L. (Spain), Olympic Channel Services SA (Switzerland), Olympic Channel Services S.L. (Spain), IOC Television & Marketing Services SA (Switzerland), the Olympic Foundation (Switzerland), The Olympic Foundation for Culture and Heritage (Switzerland), the International Olympic Truce Centre (Greece), the Olympic Refuge Foundation (Switzerland) and the Foundation for Universal Olympic Ethics (Switzerland).

h. “Olympic Games Beijing 2022” means the XXIV Olympic Winter Games in Beijing, People’s Republic of China, including all sport competitions, ceremonies, cultural events, torch relay and other activities organised by Beijing 2022, and the IOC in connection thereto.

i. “Participants” means the athletes, coaches, Chef de Mission, team officials and other members of the National Olympic Committees delegations attending the Olympic Games Beijing 2022.

j. “Personal Data” means any information related to any identified or identifiable Accredited Persons.

k. “Process” (and its derivatives) means any operation or set of operations which is performed on Personal Data or on sets of Personal Data, whether or not by automated means.

l. “Responsible Organisation” means any organisation seeking an Accreditation for its Accredited Persons, responsible for collecting and submitting to Beijing 2022 certain Personal Data and other accreditation information on behalf of each Accredited Person who it requires an Accreditation.
2. Responsibility for the Processing of Personal Data

Personal Data of Accredited Persons will be Processed by Beijing 2022 and the IOC for the purposes and in the manner described in this Information Notice. Where deemed necessary for the Authorised Purposes (e.g. in relation to Accredited Persons who are minors or do not have legal capacity under the laws of their country of residence), Beijing 2022 and the IOC may also Process Personal Data which relate to Accredited Persons’ parents, legal guardians or entourage. Accredited Persons are requested to inform these third parties about the contents of this Information Notice.

Without limiting their capacity to act jointly or separately as they deem in the best interests of the Olympic Games Beijing 2022, Beijing 2022 and the IOC have allocated their respective responsibilities as follows: Beijing 2022 is primarily responsible for Authorised Purposes described in Section 4 paragraphs a, b, c and d, and the IOC is primarily responsible for Authorised Purposes described in Section 4 paragraphs e, f, g and h.

Beijing 2022 and the IOC reserve the right to supplement or modify the information contained in this document where they deem necessary for the success of the Olympic Games Beijing 2022. In case of any Processing of Personal Data of Accredited Persons not described in this Information Notice, Beijing 2022 and the IOC will provide adequate information to the concerned Accredited Persons in accordance with applicable laws.

3. Collection of Personal Data of Accredited Persons

Personal Data of Accredited Persons is collected on different occasions as required for the preparation, promotion, presentation, operation or otherwise necessary for success of the Olympic Games Beijing 2022 and, in particular, when Accredited Persons:

Section 4 paragraphs e and g);

d. applicable legal provisions authorising the Processing of Personal Data for the Authorised Purposes, as well as compliance with a legal obligation of Beijing 2022, the IOC or other recipients listed under Section 6 (cf. Section 4 in particular, without limitation, its paragraphs e and h);

e. protection of the vital interests of Participants or of another natural person when providing healthcare services (cf. Section 4 paragraph d); and

f. Accredited Persons’ consent, where expressly granted (cf. Section 4 paragraph i where recipient’s consent is required by applicable law).

8. Retention period of Personal Data

As a general rule, the Processing of Personal Information of Accredited Persons described in this Information Notice will cease after a period of four years following the end of the Olympic Games Beijing 2022. Personal Data of Accredited Persons may be kept for a longer period of time where necessary to fulfil the Authorised Purposes including, without limitation, information deemed of historical interest (such as sports results, key biographical information) which may be kept as long as necessary for the purposes listed in Section 4 paragraphs f and g and information related to the compliance of activities occurring at the Olympic Games Beijing 2022 with the Olympic Charter and other rules applicable to Accredited Persons processed for the purposes listed in Section 4 paragraphs e and h. Retention periods applicable to anti-doping activities are specified in the Annex A of the International Standard on Protection of Privacy and Personal Information, forming part of the World Anti-Doping Code, which provides that Personal Data of Participants may be retained over time by WADA, the IOC and the ITA for a period up to 10 years or indefinitely.

9. Security of Personal Data

Beijing 2022 and the IOC will use technical and organisational measures to protect Personal Data against the risks of damage, destruction, loss or unauthorised access, in accordance with applicable laws.

10. International Transfer

Beijing 2022 and the IOC will Process Accredited Persons’ Personal Data mainly in People’s Republic of Chinawhere the Olympic Games Beijing 2022 take place, and in Switzerland where the IOC headquarters are located. However, they shall be entitled to make Accredited Persons’ Personal Data available to entities listed in Section 6 located in other countries, including outside People’s Republic of China and the EU/EEA. In such case, Beijing 2022 and the IOC shall take measures required by applicable data protection laws to ensure that Personal Data of Accredited Persons continue to benefit from an adequate level of protection.

11. Rights of Accredited Persons

Beijing 2022 and the IOC have designated a person in charge of receiving complaints or questions in relation to the Processing of Accredited Persons Personal Data, that can be contacted at the following addresses in order to exercise their right to request access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, objection to the processing or to the adoption of automated decisions and, be it the case, data portability, as well as the remaining privacy rights and digital rights:

Accreditation Terms and Conditions: ANNEX 2

COMPLEMENTARY INFORMATION NOTICE ON THE PROCESSING OF ACCREDITED PERSONS’ PERSONAL DATA IN THE CONTEXT OF THE COUNTERMEASURES IMPLEMENTED ON THE OCCASION OF THE OLYMPIC AND PARALYMPIC WINTER GAMES BEIJING 2022

IMPORTANT INFORMATION - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Specific measures will be implemented by the Beijing 2022 Organising Committee for the Olympic Winter Games and Paralympic Winter Games (“Beijing 2022”), the Chinese authorities, the International Olympic Committee (“IOC”) and International Paralympic Committee (“IPC”) on the occasion of the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Beijing 2022 (the “Games”) to protect the health of all accredited persons and to ensure the safe staging of such Games (“Countermeasures”).

Countermeasures are described in the Playbooks and they will require the collection and processing of accredited persons’ personal data, including health-related data. This complementary information notice (the “Complementary Information Notice”) completes the “Information Notice on the Processing of Personal Data of Participants and other Accredited Persons for the Olympic and Paralympic Games Beijing 2022” (the “Information Notice”) by providing further information on the processing of accredited persons’ personal data in the context of the Countermeasures.

For the processing of personal data not related to the Countermeasures, please continue to refer to the Information Notice.

Please read this notice carefully.

Responsibility for the processing of personal data in the context of the Countermeasures

Personal data of accredited persons will be processed by Beijing 2022, the competent Chinese authorities (including, without limitation, the competent authorities of the Chinese Central Government, Beijing Municipality, Hebei Province and other local governments of the jurisdiction of Games’ venues, in particular the public health authorities; collectively the “Chinese Authorities”), the IOC, IPC and other entities involved in the implementation of the Countermeasures in accordance with this Complementary Information Notice. Beijing 2022 and the competent Chinese Authorities will be primarily responsible for collecting and processing accredited persons’ personal data in the context of the Countermeasures (as further described in the Section “Authorised Purposes” paragraphs a, b, c, d, f, g and h). The IOC (for the Olympic Winter Games Beijing 2022), and the IPC (for the Paralympic Winter Games Beijing 2022), will be primarily responsible for processing activities in relation to any procedure related to a suspected or actual infringement of the Playbooks or other obligations of the accredited persons and to provide additional support to COVID-19 Liaison Officers (“CLOs”) (as further described in the Section “Authorised Purposes” paragraphs e, g and h).

Collection of personal data

Countermeasures require that personal data of accredited persons is collected on different occasions, locations and through different means. Personal data will be provided by the accredited persons either directly or through the intermediary of their respective Responsible Organisations (in particular their respective CLOs) or by third parties involved in the Countermeasures where such personal data is necessary for the Authorised Purposes set out in the section below. Such data will be collected through screening tests, mobile applications and other IT systems managed by Beijing 2022 or by competent Chinese Authorities, to monitor and record information, including personal data, related to the implementation of the Countermeasures and on different occasions, before travelling to and from China and during the Games. These systems include the Health Monitoring System in My 2022 App, the application page for health QR code of the Chinese Embassy and health declaration page of the Chinese Customs. Additional information may be provided to the accredited persons in relation to their use of the aforementioned applications and systems.

Authorised Purposes

In the context of the Countermeasures, accredited persons’ personal data will be processed for the following purposes (the “Authorised Purposes”):

a. allowing the participation in activities and events organised at the occasion of the Games and more generally enabling accredited persons to fulfil their role and mission at the Games, and preparing, participating, attending and operating the Games. Key activities include: the verification that accredited persons fulfil the requirements to carry out their functions at the Games;

b. facilitating the travel to and from, and stay in, China for the purposes of the Games. Key activities include: the review of the relevant health information, such as the COVID-19 vaccination status of the accredited persons to enable the entry of such accredited persons in China and into the closed loop system; assessment of accredited persons’ eligibility for travelling to and from China in case of previous COVID-19 infection;

c. ensuring the safety of accredited persons and the security of the Games, including implementing Countermeasures. Key activities include: health status, symptoms and temperature report, body temperature checks, contact tracing, COVID-19 screening tests and, if necessary, medical treatment, quarantine or isolation of a person whose test result is a positive, management of COVID-19 matters, positive case management and other measures to prevent and control infectious diseases including COVID-19, health risk assessments, and access controls for the public health (including body temperature checks on entrants to Games’ venues);

d. protecting the health and wellbeing of accredited persons and other persons attending the Games. Key activities include: the provision of healthcare, insurance and medical services to accredited persons at the occasion of the Games, the monitoring and treatment of athlete injuries, illnesses, diseases or any other health states including COVID-19 infection at the Games;

e. ensuring the compliance of activities occurring at the Games with the Olympic Charter, the IPC Handbook, Playbooks and other rules applicable to accredited persons. Key activities include: investigation related to an alleged infringement of the Playbooks on the occasion of the Games as described in the Playbooks Disciplinary Regulations or other rules applicable to accredited persons or other legal procedure in connection with the Countermeasures as well as more generally taking any procedure according to the Rules of Procedure with respect to alleged violations of the Olympic Charter or of any other decision or applicable regulations issued by the IOC or any IF or NOC, including in relation to disciplinary proceedings on the occasion of the Games.

f. communicating with accredited persons and informing them about the Countermeasures. Key activities include: sending of communications via email or otherwise regarding the Countermeasures, answering queries from accredited persons, in relation with prevention and control of infectious diseases including COVID-19;

g. performing legal obligations;

h. providing support to CLOs. Key activities include: for the IOC the provision of briefing materials to CLOs through the dedicated online CLO Portal, and for Beijing 2022 providing CLOs with information on COVID-19 positive cases and/or close contacts within their respective Responsible Organisations.

Categories of personal data processed in the context of Countermeasures

The following categories of personal data will be processed in the context of the Countermeasures:

a. biographical information such as family and given names, nationality, date of birth, gender, passport information;
b. contact and travel details such as postal address, email addresses, phone number, arrival and departure information;
c. information related to the participation in the Games such as accreditation number, sport(s) and discipline(s), team, function, Responsible Organisation;
d. physiological information such as illnesses, height, weight, biometrics, blood samples and facial data including facial features for facial recognition access control systems;
e. health data related to the health status of a person including medical data (doctor referrals and prescriptions, medical examination reports, epidemiological history, relevant medical history such as prior history of COVID-19 tests, laboratory tests, radiographs, presence of antibodies, etc.), daily health status (including daily body temperature, symptoms) before travelling from and to China and during the Games, COVID-19 vaccination status, COVID-19 certificate(s), laboratory test results, test reports;
f. information related to the prevention and control of the infectious diseases, including in case of an incident, such as, whereabouts, contact details of persons who would have been in close contact with an accredited person who tests positive for COVID-19, visited facility, violation of behavior rules;
g. other relevant information necessary for or in relation to the protection of the life or body of a person, the security, the preparation, the operation and the safe staging of the Games.

Personal data recipients

As part of the implementation of the Countermeasures, accredited persons’ personal data including sensitive data such as health-related data may be shared with the following recipients for the Authorised Purposes:

a. Responsible Organisations (including their respective CLOs) who are responsible for the accreditation of accredited persons within their delegation, who may have to coordinate with Beijing 2022 and the competent Chinese Authorities in case an accredited person tests positive for COVID-19 or is considered as a close contact, and who may be involved to support any investigations in case of an alleged infringement of the Playbooks or other rules applicable to accredited persons or other legal procedure in connection with the Countermeasures, as well as more generally according to the Rules of Procedure with respect to alleged violations of the Olympic Charter or of any other decision or applicable regulations issued by the IOC or any IF or NOC, including in relation to disciplinary proceedings on the occasion of the Games;

b. International Federations ("IF"), who are responsible for the organisation of their sport at the Games;

c. competent Chinese Authorities who are responsible for ensuring the security of the Games, admission in China, and... the implementation of the Countermeasures such as, in cooperation with Beijing 2022, managing confirmed COVID-19 cases and close contacts, including coordinating treatment and/or isolation of confirmed cases, and more generally accomplishing their mission to support the preparation, promotion and operation of the Games in accordance with applicable laws;

d. International Testing Agency (“ITA”), whom the IOC has entrusted with certain tasks related to the implementation of the anti-doping programme in relation to the Olympic Games Beijing 2022 and who may need such personal data for anti-doping test planning and for determining any alleged anti-doping rule violation;

e. insurance providers who may provide insurance services to accredited persons;

f. healthcare and medical service providers who may provide treatment to accredited persons and COVID-19 screening facilities which could ensure the implementation of the Countermeasures during their stay at the Games;

g. the Medical Expert Panel (composed of members of the China Center for Disease Control (CDC), the Beijing CDC and five international expert representatives of the IOC, IPC and Winter IFs) who provides case assessment for potential exemptions for vaccination of certain accredited persons for medical reasons and protocols for complex cases, as well as guidance on the early management of potential close contacts of confirmed COVID-19 cases, based on the screening testing plan that will be implemented at the Games;

h. travel and accommodation service providers, who provide services to accredited persons.

These recipients access such personal data where required by their respective operations and responsibilities in connection with the Games and Beijing 2022, the IOC and the IPC shall be authorised to share such personal data among them and with these recipients as well as other service providers or third parties acting on their behalf, where necessary for the Authorised Purposes.

Where necessary for the Authorised Purposes, these recipients may combine or supplement any personal data of accredited persons received in the context of the Countermeasures with any other information in their possession.

Grounds for processing personal data

Processing of accredited persons’ personal data in the context of the Countermeasures is based on the following grounds:

a. the substantial public interest to guarantee the security at the Games, prevent health hazards which may be caused by, in particular, COVID-19, carry out anti-doping activities, protect clean athletes;

b. protection of the vital interests of accredited persons or of another natural person when providing healthcare services;

c. the necessity in view of allowing and facilitating the accredited persons’ participation in the Games and more generally the performance by accredited persons of their respective operations and responsibilities in connection with the Games;

d. the legitimate interests of Beijing 2022, the IOC and the IPC respectively, to ensure that accredited persons respect their covenant to comply with the provisions applicable to them (including the Olympic Charter, the IPC Handbook, Playbooks and other rules applicable to accredited persons);

e. applicable legal provisions authorising the processing of personal data for the aforementioned authorised purposes, as well as compliance with a legal obligation of Beijing 2022, the IOC and the IPC respectively or other recipients listed above;

f. accredited persons’ consent, where consent is required by applicable law.

Retention period of personal data

As a general rule, the processing of accredited persons’ personal data by Beijing 2022, the IOC and the IPC respectively in the context of the Countermeasures will cease as soon as it is not necessary to fulfil the aforementioned Authorised Purposes and no later than 31 May 2022. Notwithstanding the above, Personal Data of Accredited Persons may be kept for a longer period of time where necessary to fulfil the aforementioned Authorised Purposes including, without limitation, information related to the compliance of activities occurring at the Games with the Olympic Charter, the IPC Handbook, Playbooks and other rules applicable to accredited persons or other legal procedure in connection with the Countermeasures. Retention periods applicable to anti-doping activities are specified in the Annex A of the International Standard on Protection of Privacy and Personal Information, forming part of the World Anti-Doping Code, which provides that personal data of participants may be retained over time by WADA, the IOC, the IPC and the ITA for a period up to 10 years or indefinitely.

Security of personal data

Technical and organisational measures will be put in place to protect personal data against the risks of damage, destruction, loss or unauthorised access, in accordance with applicable laws.

International Transfer

Accredited persons’ personal data in relation to the Countermeasures will be mainly processed in China where the Games take place. However, such personal data may be made available to the abovementioned recipients who may be located in other countries, including outside China and the EU/EEA to extent that it is necessary for the Authorised Purposes. In such case, appropriate measures required by applicable laws will be implemented to ensure that such personal data continue to benefit from an adequate level of protection.

Accreditation Terms and Conditions: ANNEX 3

CAPTURE AND USE OF IMAGES FOR THE OLYMPIC GAMES BEIJING 2022

Capture and use of images Accredited Persons may be filmed and photographed at the occasion of the Olympic Games Beijing 2022. Images of Accredited Persons taken at this occasion may be used together with related information as part of the media coverage of the Olympic Games Beijing 2022, or otherwise to inform the public about the Olympic Games Beijing 2022, the Olympic Games in general and promote the Olympic Movement.

Understanding that as participants in the Olympic Games Beijing 2022, Accredited Persons will be participating in an exceptional event which has ongoing international and historical significance. In consideration of the acceptance of their participation, Accredited Persons agree to be filmed, televised, photographed, identified and/or otherwise recorded during the Olympic Games Beijing 2022, and that their captured or recorded image, together with their names, likenesses, voices, performances and biographical information, may be used, including by reproducing, distributing, communicating to the public and making it available, in any content, format and through any media or technology whether now existing or created in the future, without payment, for the maximum duration permitted by applicable law, by Beijing 2022, the IOC, the IOC’s Affiliates, and/or third parties authorised by them, such as Organising Committees for the Olympic Games or the Youth Olympic Games, National Olympic Committees, International Sports Federations, the Olympic Marketing Partners (TOP Partners and Rights-Holding Broadcasters), domestic partners, broadcasters, news media organisations or social media platforms, during and after the Olympic Games Beijing 2022, for the maximum duration permitted by applicable law, in relation to the preparation, operation, celebration and promotion of the Olympic Games, the Olympic Movement, and/or the IOC and its activities, for commercial and non-commercial purposes, but excluding any use that decidedly or conspicuously creates a direct commercial association between the Accredited Person's image and any product or service, without his/her consent.

Accredited Persons may take or record still and moving images and/or sounds within the perimeter of the Olympic Games Beijing 2022's areas and venues where the Olympic Games Beijing 2022 and related events occur, as designated by Beijing 2022 (“Games Areas”), and Accredited Persons agree that the IOC shall be sole owner of any intellectual property rights (including copyright) in such content without further authorisation from, or payment or compensation to, the Accredited Persons or anyone acting on their behalf, and Accredited Persons hereby assign any rights they may have in respect of such content to the IOC. To the extent permitted by applicable laws, Accredited Persons hereby agree to waive or not to exercise any moral rights they may have in respect of such content against Beijing 2022, the IOC and any third parties authorised by them, including without limitation the right to make derivative works.

Pursuant to the above, Accredited Persons acknowledge that the IOC hereby grants them with a limited and revocable license to use the still and moving images and/or sounds that Accredited Persons take or record within the Games Areas, provided that such use is personal, non-commercial and non-promotional and that otherwise complies with any additional IOC requirements (including the IOC Social and Digital Media Guidelines). Accredited Persons acknowledge that they are solely responsible for the use of these still and moving images and thereafter, Accredited Persons release Beijing 2022, the IOC, the IOC’s Affiliates, and any third parties authorised by them from any responsibility in connection with them.
