NOW THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE FOREGOING, THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

I. GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PARTIES

1. The Olympic Host Contract

- 1.1. The Olympic Host Contract (or OHC), as referred to herein, consists of the following documents and commitments, which are all binding upon the Parties and which, in case of any conflict or discrepancy, will apply in the following order of precedence:
 - a. The OHC – Principles (including all appendices which form an integral part thereof);
 - b. The OHC – Operational Requirements;
 - c. The Games Delivery Plan; and
 - d. The Pre-election Commitments.
- 1.2. The obligations of the Parties under the OHC shall be defined, first, by the terms of the OHC, second, by the terms of the Olympic Charter (in accordance with §48) and, third, by application of the principles of interpretation of Swiss law.
- 1.3. Unless otherwise defined, all capitalised terms used in the OHC shall have the meaning set forth in Appendix 1 to the OHC – Principles.
- 1.4. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall abide by all terms set forth in the OHC – Operational Requirements (as defined in Appendix 1) and, subject to §31.3, all updates, amendments and modifications thereto, irrespective of when updated, amended or modified. The chapters of the OHC – Operational Requirements in force on the day of execution of the OHC are listed in Appendix 2 to the OHC – Principles.

2. Right and responsibility to organise the Games

The IOC hereby entrusts the Hosts, the Host NOC and, in conformity with §3, the OCOG, with the planning, organising, financing and staging of the Games, in accordance with the terms of the OHC and the Olympic Charter.

3. Formation of the OCOG and adherence by the OCOG to the OHC and related agreements

- 3.1. Within five (5) months following the execution of the OHC or at a later date mutually agreed in writing between the Parties, the Hosts and the Host NOC will form the OCOG, as an entity endowed with legal personality under the laws of the Host Country and in a manner providing for maximum efficiency with respect to its operations and its rights and obligations under the OHC. The Hosts and the Host NOC shall keep the IOC informed on all matters relating to the structuring and formation of the OCOG. All agreements and other contractual or legal documents relating to the formation and governance of the OCOG, as well as any subsequent changes thereto, shall be subject to the IOC's prior written approval.
- 3.2. The composition of the OCOG's highest executive body shall reflect fair representation of men and women.
- 3.3. The Hosts and the Host NOC are responsible to ensure that, within one (1) month after the OCOG's formation, the OCOG intervenes as a party to the OHC as well as to the Broadcast Refund Agreement and the Joint Marketing Programme Agreement and adheres to all of their terms, so that all terms of the OHC, the Broadcast Refund Agreement and the Joint Marketing Programme Agreement relating to the OCOG and in particular all the rights, obligations, and guarantees of the OCOG provided for in such agreements, are legally binding upon the OCOG as if it were an original party thereto. The Parties shall enter into legally binding joinder agreements to that effect and the Hosts and the Host NOC shall ensure that the OCOG executes and delivers to the IOC any further documents that may be necessary to effect or confirm the OCOG's adherence to the OHC, the Broadcast Refund Agreement and the Joint Marketing Programme Agreement.

- 3.4. The OCOG shall remain in good standing under the laws of the Host Country and the various documents governing its constitution throughout the duration of the OHC. Prior to the completion of its liquidation, the OCOG must ensure that it has taken and completed the following actions:
- a. satisfied all its financial and other obligations under the OHC;

 - c. prepared and delivered to the IOC, and where applicable to the IPC, all reports and other information to this effect and performed all assignments of rights or transfers of physical and intellectual property elements contemplated under the OHC; and
 - d. established an efficient procedure for handling any pending or potential legal disputes between the OCOG and any third party.
- 3.5. The creation of any subsidiary or other affiliated corporate entity, or the entry into any partnership, joint venture or similar legal structure by the Hosts, the Host NOC and/or the OCOG for the purpose of the performance of any of their obligations, or the exercise of any of their rights under the OHC, is subject to the IOC's prior written approval and to the following conditions:
- a. the Hosts, the Host NOC and/or the OCOG shall submit to the IOC all agreements and other contractual or legal documents relating to the formation and governance of such corporate entity or legal structure to the IOC for review;
 - b. through their ownership of capital stock, voting rights or any other means of control, the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall give all instructions and take all measures as necessary in order to guarantee the compliance with the OHC by such corporate entity or legal structure. Where appropriate, the IOC may require that such corporate entity or legal structure enters into a legally binding instrument with the IOC to this effect; and
 - c. the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall be jointly and severally liable, to the extent indicated in §4.1 and §4.2, for all acts and omissions of such corporate entity or legal structure.

4. Joint and several liabilities of the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG

- 4.1. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall be jointly and severally liable for all their obligations, guarantees, representations and other commitments under the OHC, whether entered into individually or collectively. The joint and several liabilities of the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall, in particular, apply in respect of all damages, costs and liabilities of any nature, direct or indirect, which may result from their breach of any provision of the OHC, including pursuant to §38.1.
- 4.2. Notwithstanding §4.1, the Host NOC will not be jointly liable with the Hosts and the OCOG for the financial undertakings of the Hosts and the OCOG in relation to the planning, organising, financing and staging of the Games except if, and to the extent that, this liability of the Host NOC was provided in any Pre-election Commitment.

5. Pre-election Commitments and other commitments made by Host Country Authorities

- 5.1. All Pre-election Commitments shall continue in effect after the election and be binding upon the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG are responsible to ensure that all Pre-election Commitments remain in effect until the completion of the Games and, where relevant, until the completion of the Paralympic Games, or for so long thereafter as required pursuant to the OHC or the Olympic Charter, without prejudice to any other obligations that may exist between the Parties.
- 5.2. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG are further responsible to ensure that:
- a. all Host Country Authorities and relevant third parties honour and enforce all Pre-election Commitments and all other commitments, guarantees and obligations they have undertaken in relation to the Games and, where applicable, to the Paralympic Games; and
 - b. all cities, regions or other third parties that are hosting events of the Games and/or of the Paralympic Games, perform and comply with the terms of the OHC and carry out their obligations related thereto under the supervision of the OCOG.
- 5.3. In case any event part of the Programme of the Games and/or of the Paralympic Games is organised in a country other than the Host Country:
- a. the obligations of the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG under §5.2 shall extend to all commitments and obligations borne by relevant cities, regions, public authorities and relevant third parties in that other country;
 - b. where necessary to ensure the successful planning, organising, financing and staging of the Games, the provisions of the OHC referring to the Host Country, the Host NOC or the Host Country Authorities shall apply mutatis mutandis to the other country, or to the NOC or the authorities in the other country, as applicable and as may be reasonable in the circumstances. This shall include, without limitation, the following provisions of the OHC: respect of the Olympic Charter and promotion of Olympism (§13), sustainability and legacy (§15), security, health and safety (§17), betting and prevention of manipulation of competitions (§18), Olympic identity and accreditation card and rights related thereto (§20), entry and stay of Games-related personnel, animals and supplies (§21), taxes (§22), commercial programmes conducted in relation to the Games (§24) and broadcast and other media coverage of the Games (§25).

Unless expressly provided to the contrary, nothing provided in the OHC shall be interpreted as limiting the scope, binding nature or effectiveness of any Pre-election Commitment.

6. Financial responsibilities of the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG

- 6.1. Unless expressly stipulated otherwise in the OHC, all obligations of the Hosts, the Host NOC and/or the OCOG pursuant to the OHC shall be discharged at their expense.

- 6.2. Where the OHC or any other relevant agreement does not expressly provide otherwise, such facilities, goods or services shall be provided to the relevant Games stakeholders at the expense of the Hosts, the Host NOC and/or the OCOG and without any financial or other compensation to be paid or provided by the relevant Games stakeholders.

 - b. for indicative purposes only and based on the experience of the IOC from previous editions of the Games of the Olympiad and without taking into account potential evolutions in the International Programme (including, without limitation, potential renegotiations or renewals of current agreements covering key product categories), the amount of the OCOG's share of the net revenues (including cash and value-in-kind) from the International Programme foreseen under §8.1(e), is currently estimated at USD 437.000.000 (four hundred thirty seven million United States dollars); and

- a. the IOC shall determine the schedule, currency and other conditions applicable to the payment of this contribution;
- b. any payment of this contribution by the IOC to the OCOG, before the conclusion of the Games, shall be considered as an advance in payment, subject to full or partial reimbursement in the cases of full or partial cancellation of the Games or any other contingency which, pursuant to Broadcast Agreements, may result in the reimbursement by the IOC of certain amounts advanced by third parties in relation to the Games;
- c. the modalities applicable to the OCOG's obligations in relation to a possible reimbursement of this contribution to the IOC pursuant to §9(b) are further described in the Broadcast Refund Agreement executed between the IOC, the Hosts and the Host NOC prior to, or shortly after, the execution of the OHC, which the OCOG shall join, and to which it shall become a full party, within the timeline provided for in §3.3; and
- d. the IOC reserves the right (i) to adjust the amount of this contribution in case the actual revenues received by the IOC differ from the IOC's projections for such revenues at the time of the execution of the OHC, (ii) to reduce the amount of this contribution, in case the IOC does not receive the revenues referred to in Broadcast Agreements concluded in relation to the Games, and (iii) to withhold any payment of this contribution pursuant to §37.

10. Right to retain a share of the surplus resulting from the celebration of the Games

As further detailed in the “OHC – Operational Requirements – Finance”, any surplus resulting from the planning, organising, financing and staging of the Games shall be divided as follows:

- a. twenty percent (20%) to the Host NOC;
- b. sixty percent (60%) to the OCOG or, as determined by the IOC, to the Host Country Authorities or other third parties referred to in §3.4(b) to be used exclusively for the development, delivery and funding of the legacy plan defined pursuant to the “OHC – Operational Requirements – Sustainability and Legacy” and for the development of sport in the Host Country, as may be determined by the OCOG in consultation with the IOC, the Hosts and the Host NOC; and
- c. twenty percent (20%) to the IOC, to be used for the purposes indicated in §10(b) or otherwise in accordance with the Olympic Charter.

11. Services to be provided by OBS

OBS shall exercise, at the IOC's cost, all responsibilities of host broadcaster (in particular the production and distribution of the international broadcast signals) of the Games and, at the OCOG's costs and in accordance with the terms set forth in §35.3, of the Paralympic Games, subject to the OCOG's obligations described in the "OHC – Operational Requirements – Media" and the Broadcasting Cooperation Agreement. For indicative purposes only, based on the experience of the IOC and OBS from previous editions of the Games of the Olympiad and without limiting OBS' exclusive right to determine the best manner in which to conduct the host broadcast operations, the fair market value of the services to be provided by the IOC and OBS for the Games pursuant to §11 (specifically excluding services related to the Paralympic Games pursuant to §35.3) is currently estimated at USD 340.000.000 (three hundred forty million United States dollars).

12. General assistance and transfer of knowledge activities

- a. the IOC shall share with the OCOG certain information, knowledge and expertise and make available to the OCOG relevant information acquired from other Organising Committees of the Olympic Games, including in particular the "Olympic Games Guides" issued by the IOC to assist the OCOG in the delivery of the Games, and will allow the OCOG to participate in and benefit from the IOC's Olympic Games knowledge management programme and related initiatives (as further detailed in §30.1); and
- b. the IOC shall make available to the OCOG the expertise from the IOC's and IOC Controlled Entities' staff and advisors in areas most relevant for the planning, organising, financing and staging of the Games (e.g., in relation to corporate organisation, finance, marketing, technology, legal services, medical services, doping controls, prevention of manipulation of competitions, sustainability and legacy, creative productions, venue planning, ticketing, hospitality and business development, and cultural activities). Based on the experience of the IOC from previous editions of the Games of the Olympiad and without limiting the IOC's exclusive right to determine the best manner to conduct such activities, the fair market value of this assistance is currently estimated at USD 125.000.000 (one hundred twenty five million United States dollars).

The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG undertake to carry out all their Games-related activities in a manner that conforms with the IOC Sustainability Strategy and its five focus areas, namely infrastructure and natural sites, sourcing and resource management, mobility, workforce and climate and that ensures that the Games are climate positive.
- 15.2. Pursuant to their obligations under §15.1, the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall in particular:
 - a. define, implement and communicate a comprehensive and integrated sustainability programme compliant with the provisions of the “OHC – Operational Requirements – Sustainability and Legacy”; and

 - iii. compensate emissions to a level greater than the residual emissions, through carbon offset programmes agreed by the IOC; and
 - iv. collaborate with Host Country Authorities and other third parties to create further climate benefits for local communities.
- 15.3. In line with their Pre-election Commitments, the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall maximise the use of existing and planned infrastructure in the Host Country (or, where relevant, outside the Host Country under the conditions set forth in the Olympic Charter) and consider temporary and demountable venues in all situations where new permanent venues are not supported by viable business plans and fulfilling long-term legacy needs of the Host Country, as further defined in the “OHC – Operational Requirements – Venues”. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG acknowledge that the list of sports, events and quotas referred to above may be complemented by the IOC, in particular as a consequence of the OCOG's prerogative in accordance with the Olympic Charter to propose to the IOC the inclusion of one or more additional events in the Programme of the Games. In this respect, the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG are invited to refer to the sports, events and quotas added to the programme of the Games of the XXXIII Olympiad 2024 in Paris upon proposal of the Paris 2024 Organising Committee for the Olympic and Paralympic Games, as a relevant indicator of such potential complements.
 - 16.3. The IOC reserves the right to make changes to the Programme of the Games, at any time, subsequent to the dates mentioned in §16.1, as the IOC may consider being in the best interests of the Games, in consultation with the OCOG and the relevant International Federations.
 - 16.4. The Hosts, the Host NOC and/or the OCOG shall implement any decision made by the IOC regarding the Programme of the Games pursuant to this §16. In case the Hosts, the Host NOC and/or the OCOG consider that the Programme of the Games as decided by the IOC causes a material adverse effect on their financial rights or obligations when compared to the full programme of the Games of the XXXIII Olympiad 2024 in Paris as referred to in §16.2, the consequences described in §31.3 shall apply.
 - 16.5. The final dates for the holding of the Games, including the number of days of competition and the scheduling of the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the Games, shall be decided by the IOC in consultation with the OCOG.

Nothing in the OHC shall limit the right of the IOC to grant to IOC Marketing Partners, Rights-Holding Broadcasters and other third parties the right to use and exploit any Games-Related Properties.
- 19.4. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall ensure that the creation, use and exploitation of Games-Related Properties do not infringe upon the rights of any third parties and that, if any element created by a third party is contained in any Games-Related Property, all necessary rights, clearances and authorisations have been obtained to ensure the compliance with §19.3.

- 20.1. The Olympic identity and accreditation card ("OIAC") confers on its holder the right to take part in the Games. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG shall be responsible to ensure, in cooperation with competent Host Country Authorities, that, together with a passport or other official travel document, the OIAC allows its holder to enter and remain in the Host Country and perform Games-related activities for the duration of the Games, including for a period of at least one (1) month before the scheduled commencement of the Games and one (1) month after the conclusion of the Games.
- 20.2. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG are responsible to ensure, by coordinating with the competent Host Country Authorities, that necessary measures are taken, in a way consistent with past Olympic Games editions, so that the application of labour laws and regulations of the Host Country to accredited persons (both nationals of the Host Country and foreigners), will not prevent, delay or hinder the performance by such accredited persons of their Games-related activities in accordance with the specific needs and requirements of such activities. The Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG's obligations in relation to the issuance and management of the OIAC are further specified in the "OHC – Operational Requirements - Accreditation".

22. Taxes

- 22.1. The Parties agree that, in order to help ensure the successful planning, organising, financing and staging of the Games in accordance with the OHC, it will be necessary for the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG to coordinate with competent Host Country Authorities so that the tax legislation of the Host Country is implemented and applied in a manner that guarantees the achievement of the objectives and results described in §22.2-22.5.

- 38.3. Subject to §38.5, the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG hereby waive any claims against all IOC Indemnitees, including for all costs resulting from all acts or omissions of such IOC Indemnitees relating to the Games, as well as in the event of any performance, non-performance, breach or termination of the OHC by the IOC.

The IOC may call the Hosts, the Host NOC and/or the OCOG before any court of law where the IOC is sued, irrespective of the arbitration clause provided for in §52.2.
- 38.5. The indemnification and waiver of claims pursuant to §38 shall not apply with respect to any damage, loss or claim directly caused by the wilful misconduct or gross negligence of any IOC Indemnitee.

 - b. if, following a notice served in accordance with §39.3(a), the termination event(s) ascertained by the IOC has (have) not been remedied to the reasonable satisfaction of the IOC within the deadline set forth in §39.3(a), the IOC shall be entitled, without further notice, to withdraw the organisation of the Games from the Hosts, the Host NOC and the OCOG and to terminate the OHC, all with immediate effect.

The arbitration shall take place in Lausanne, Switzerland. If, for any reason, the Court of Arbitration for Sport denies its competence, the dispute shall then be determined conclusively by the state courts in Lausanne, Switzerland.
