

Olympic Qualifier Series Budapest

Accreditation Terms and Conditions

My accreditation to the Olympic Qualifier Series Budapest (respectively the “Accreditation” and the “Event”), and the issuance of an “Accreditation Device” (which may be a personal identifiable card, a guest pass, or other access device) are subject to my agreement to and compliance with the following terms and conditions (the “Terms and Conditions”), established by the International Olympic Committee (the “IOC”) and the Local Organising Committee (“LOC”):

1. I agree to comply with the Olympic Charter, the IOC Code of Ethics (including, in particular the Rules on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions applicable to the Event), as well as any further regulation, decision, instruction or specific obligation communicated by IOC and/or the LOC that may apply to me. I agree that my strict compliance with the above rules is a condition to be granted and to maintain my Accreditation.
2. I have read and understood the information regarding the processing of my personal data and, as and to the extent required under applicable data protection laws, consent to such processing of my personal data as set out in the “Information Notice on the Processing of Personal Data of Participants and other Accredited Persons” (see Annex 1A below) which forms an integral part of these Terms and Conditions.
3. I agree that I am attending the Event (including the travel to/from the Event and its preparations) at my own risk and under my own responsibility and that it is impossible to fully eliminate the relevant risks, the impact of such risks and/or of the measures to address those risks on my participation to and, where applicable, performance in the Event, despite all care taken by the IOC, the LOC and any other competent authorities. To the fullest extent admissible under applicable laws, I irrevocably release the IOC, the LOC (and their respective members, directors, officers, employees, volunteers, contractors or agents) from any liability for any kind of loss, injury or damage that I may suffer or be exposed to in connection with my participation in the Event.
4. With regard to the capture and use of images on the occasion of the Event, further described in Annex 1B below which forms an integral part of these Terms and Conditions:
 - a. I agree to be photographed, identified or otherwise recorded by the IOC, the LOC or third parties authorised by them, and that such recordings can be used for the maximum duration permitted by law, in any format/media, and in relation to the preparation, operation, celebration and direct or indirect promotion of, or reference to, the Olympic Games, the Olympic Movement and/or the IOC and its activities, in a commercial or non-commercial context, but excluding any use that creates a direct commercial association between my image alone and any product or service of any third party, without my separate written consent;
 - b. I agree to assign all intellectual property rights in still and moving images and/or sounds that I may take or record, created within, or from the Event’s areas and venues (“Content”) to the IOC – without further authorisation from, or compensation to, me or anyone acting on my behalf –, granting the right to make derivative works and to the extent permitted by applicable laws, I agree to waive or not to exercise any moral rights; and
 - c. I acknowledge that the IOC grants me a revocable license to use the Content for personal/private and non-commercial/non-promotional purposes compliant with any applicable requirements of the IOC, and that I shall only use the Content in a manner consistent with such license.
5. I understand that the Accreditation Device is the property of the IOC and shall not be passed on or transferred to any other person. I further acknowledge that my Accreditation and Accreditation Device can be removed with immediate effect in the IOC’s full discretion, in particular in case I refuse to agree with and/or do not respect the Terms and Conditions.

OLYMPIC QUALIFIER SERIES Budapest

Accreditation Terms and Conditions: ANNEX 1A

INFORMATION NOTICE ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA OF PARTICIPANTS AND OTHER ACCREDITED PERSONS FOR THE OLYMPIC QUALIFIER SERIES BUDAPEST

IMPORTANT INFORMATION - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

This document contains important information regarding the processing of Personal Data of participants and other persons requiring an Accreditation for the Olympic Qualifiers Series in Budapest. It indicates the organisations responsible for processing Personal Data of Accredited Persons, the key purposes for which such data is processed, where it is processed as well as the applicable modalities and conditions. This notice also explains how Accredited Persons can exercise their rights under applicable data protection laws. Personal Data of Accredited Person will be used only as necessary to achieve the purposes set out in this Information Notice, which may vary according to each Accredited Person's function(s) at the Olympic Qualifiers Series Budapest. For this reason, some provisions applicable to Participants may not apply to other Accredited Persons. If you are applying for an Accreditation, please read this notice carefully and make sure you understand it.

1. Definitions

In this Information Notice, the following definitions apply:

1. "Accreditation" means the personal identifiable card, guest pass, or other access device provided to Accredited Persons to identify that they are eligible to be present at the Event. The Accreditation functions as the official access device granting the Accredited Person the necessary access to perform a specific function during the Event.
2. "Accredited Persons" means (i) all persons applying for, or being granted, the right to be accredited for the Event including, without limitation, Participants as well as employees, agents and contractors of International Federations, LOC, IOC, IOC's Affiliates, Media Rights-Holders, broadcasters, media organisations and other entities listed in Section 6 and (ii) all persons applying for, or being granted a guest pass for an Event venue.
3. "Authorised Purposes" means the purposes referred to in Section 4 below.
4. "Event" means the Olympic Qualifiers Series in Budapest, including all sport competitions, ceremonies, cultural events, exhibitions, and other activities organised by the IOC, and/or the LOC in connection thereto.
5. "IOC" means the International Olympic Committee.
6. "IOC's Affiliates" means any entity, now existing or to be created, which is directly or indirectly controlled by the IOC, including without limitation Olympic Broadcasting Services SA (Switzerland), Olympic Broadcasting Services S.L. (Spain), Olympic Channel Services SA (Switzerland), Olympic Channel Services S.L. (Spain), IOC Television & Marketing Services SA (Switzerland), the Olympic Foundation (Switzerland), The Olympic Foundation for Culture and Heritage (Switzerland), the International Olympic Truce Centre (Greece), the Olympic Refugee Foundation (Switzerland) and the Foundation for Universal Olympic Ethics (Switzerland).
7. "Participants" means the athletes, team officials, chaperones and team delegation guests attending the Event.
8. "Personal Data" means any information related to any identified or identifiable Accredited Persons, including Sensitive Information.
9. "Process" (and its derivatives) means any operation or set of operations which is performed on Personal Data or on sets of Personal Data, whether or not by automated means.
10. "Responsible Organisation" means any organisation seeking an Accreditation for its Accredited Persons, responsible for collecting and submitting to the IOC and/or the LOC certain Personal Data and other accreditation information on behalf of each Accredited Person who it requires an Accreditation for.
11. "Sensitive Information" means Personal Data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical, beliefs, or, trade union membership, and the Processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning or political party, political opinions, and health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.
12. "LOC" means the Local Organising Committee and which is responsible for the organisation and staging of the Event.

2. Responsibility for the Processing of Personal Data

Personal Data of Accredited Persons will be Processed by the IOC and/or the LOC for the purposes and in the manner described in this Information Notice. Where deemed necessary for the Authorised Purposes (e.g. in relation to Accredited Persons who are minors or do not have legal capacity under the laws of their country of residence), the IOC and/or the LOC may also Process Personal Data which relate to Accredited Persons' parents, legal guardians or entourage. Accredited Persons are requested to inform these third parties about the content of this Information Notice.

Without limiting their capacity to act jointly or separately as they deem in the best interests of the Event, the IOC and the LOC have allocated their respective responsibilities as follows: the LOC is primarily responsible and shall act in the capacity of independent controller for those Authorised Purposes described in Section 4 paragraphs b, c, d, e and i, and the IOC is primarily responsible and shall act in the capacity of independent controller for those Authorised Purposes described in Section 4 paragraphs a, f, g, h and j. The IOC may also work with other third-party controllers in its pursuit of some of these Authorised Purposes.

The IOC and/or the LOC reserve the right to supplement or modify the information contained in this document where they deem necessary for the success of the Event. In case of any Processing of Personal Data of Accredited Persons not described in this Information Notice, the IOC and/or the LOC will provide adequate information to the concerned Accredited Persons and ensure that such Processing is based on the required legal ground(s) in accordance with applicable laws, including, where applicable, the express consent of the Accredited Persons.

3. Collection of Personal Data of Accredited Persons

Personal Data of Accredited Persons is collected by the IOC and/or the LOC on different occasions as required for the preparation, promotion, presentation, operation or otherwise necessary for success of the Event and, in particular, when Accredited Persons:

- j. travel and accommodation service providers, who provide services to Accredited Persons;
- k. any organisation designated by the IOC as a transferee of legacy and knowledge of the Event for the benefit of the Olympic Movement or any future sports or cultural events.

Where the above-mentioned recipients consider such measure necessary for the Authorised Purposes, they may combine or supplement any Personal Data of Accredited Persons received from the LOC and/or the IOC with any other information in their possession. Accredited Persons are invited to consult the websites or other official information sources made available by the above-mentioned recipients for additional information regarding their respective operations and activities and related Processing of Personal Data. Personal Data will normally be Processed in a confidential manner. Some of the Personal Data, such as some biographical information and information related to the participation of Participants in the competitions of the Event or related to breaches of rules applicable to Accredited Persons may be publicly disclosed.

7. Grounds for Processing Personal Data

Processing of Personal Data of Accredited Persons is based on the following grounds:

- a. the necessity in view of granting the Accreditation in the interest of Accredited Persons for purposes of allowing and facilitating the Participants' participation in the Event and more generally the performance by Accredited Persons of their respective operations and responsibilities in connection with the Event, (cf. Section 4 paragraphs a, b, c, g and j);
- b. the substantial public interest to guarantee the safety and security at the Event, to protect the health and wellbeing of Accredited Persons, carry out anti-doping activities, protect clean athletes, prevent manipulations of competitions, inform the general public and promote the Event (cf. Section 4 paragraphs d, e, f, g and h);
- c. the legitimate interests of the LOC and the IOC to ensure that Accredited Persons respect their covenant to comply with the provisions applicable to Accredited Persons (including the Olympic Charter and the IOC Code of Ethics, as well as for Participants the anti-doping rules applicable at the occasion of the Event, the World Anti-Doping Code and the rules referred to in section 1 of the Conditions of Participation), as well as to promote the Event and their legacy (cf. Section 4 paragraphs f and h);
- d. applicable legal provisions authorising the Processing of Personal Data for the Authorised Purposes, as well as compliance with a legal obligation of the LOC, the IOC or other recipients listed under Section 6 (cf. Section 4 in particular, without limitation, its paragraphs f and i);
- e. protection of the vital interests of Participants or of another natural person when providing healthcare services (cf. Section 4 paragraph e); and
- f. Accredited Persons' consent, where expressly granted (cf. Section 4 paragraph j where recipient's consent is required by applicable law).

8. Retention period of Personal Data

As a general rule, the Processing of Personal Information of Accredited Persons described in this Information Notice will cease after a period of four years following the end of the Event. Personal Data of Accredited Persons may be kept for a longer period of time where necessary to fulfil the Authorised Purposes including, without limitation, information deemed of historical interest (such as sports results, key biographical information) which may be kept as long as necessary for the purposes listed in Section 4 paragraphs g and h and information related to the compliance of activities occurring at the Event with the Olympic Charter and other rules applicable to Accredited Persons processed for the purposes listed in Section 4 paragraphs f and i. Retention periods applicable to anti-doping activities are specified in the Annex A of the International Standard on Protection of Privacy and Personal Information, forming part of the World Anti-Doping Code, which provides that Personal Data of Participants may be retained over time by WADA, the IOC, the IFs and the ITA for a period up to 10 years or indefinitely.

9. Security of Personal Data

The LOC and the IOC will use technical and organisational measures appropriate to the risk to protect Personal Data against the risks of damage, destruction, loss or unauthorised access, in accordance with applicable laws.

10. International Transfer

The LOC and the IOC will Process Accredited Persons' Personal Data mainly in Budapest, Hungary where the Event takes place, and in Switzerland where the IOC headquarters are located. However, they shall be entitled to make Accredited Persons' Personal Data available to entities listed in Section 6 located in other countries, including outside Switzerland and the EU/EEA. In case of any transfer of Personal Data to countries not ensuring an adequate level of data protection according to applicable data protection laws, the LOC and the IOC (1) shall take measures required by applicable data protection laws (such as the implementation of standard contractual clauses recognized by relevant data protection supervisory authorities) to ensure that Personal Data of Accredited Persons continue to benefit from an adequate level of protection or (2) may ground the transfer of Personal Data on the basis of a valid derogation under applicable data protection laws.

11. Rights of Accredited Persons

The LOC and the IOC have designated a person in charge of receiving complaints or questions in relation to the Processing of Accredited Persons Personal Data, that can be contacted at the following addresses in order to exercise their right to request access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, objection to the processing or to the adoption of automated decisions and, be it the case, data portability, as well as the remaining privacy rights and digital rights under applicable data protection laws:

OLYMPIC QUALIFIER SERIES Budapest

Accreditation Terms and Conditions: ANNEX 1B

CAPTURE AND USE OF IMAGES FOR THE OLYMPIC QUALIFIER SERIES BUDAPEST

Capture and use of images: Accredited Persons may be filmed, recorded, and photographed at the occasion of the Olympic Qualifier Series (“OQS”). Images of Accredited Persons taken at this occasion may be used together with related information as part of the media coverage of the OQS, or otherwise to inform the public about the OQS, the Olympic Games in general and promote the Olympic Movement.

Understanding that as participants in the OQS, Accredited Persons will be participating in an exceptional event. In consideration of the acceptance of their participation, Accredited Persons agree to be filmed, photographed, identified and/or otherwise recorded during the OQS. In particular, the resulting filmed, photographed or recorded image, together with their names, likenesses, voices, performances and biographical information, may be used and/or distributed in any format (including by reproducing, distributing, communicating to the public and making it available), in any content and through any media, format and technology whether now existing or created in the future, without compensation (financial or otherwise), for the maximum duration permitted by applicable law by the LOC, the IOC and any entity, now existing or to be created, which is directly or indirectly controlled by the IOC, including without limitation Olympic Broadcasting Services SA (Switzerland), Olympic Broadcasting Services S.L. (Spain), Olympic Channel Services SA (Switzerland), Olympic Channel Services S.L. (Spain), IOC Television & Marketing Services SA (Switzerland), the Olympic Foundation (Switzerland), The Olympic Foundation for Culture and Heritage (Switzerland), the International Olympic Truce Centre (Greece), the Olympic Refuge Foundation (Switzerland) and the Foundation for Universal Olympic Ethics (Switzerland) (“IOC’s Affiliates”) and/or by third parties authorised by them (such as Organising Committees for the Olympic Games or the Youth Olympic Games, National Olympic Committees, International Sports Federations, the Olympic Marketing Partners (TOP Partners and Rights-Holding Broadcasters), domestic partners and other commercial partners, broadcasters, media rights holders, news media organisations or social media platforms) during and after the OQS, in relation to the preparation, operation, celebration and direct or indirect promotion of, or reference to, the Olympic Games, the Olympic Movement and/or the IOC and its activities, in a commercial or non-commercial context, but excluding any use that creates a direct commercial association between the Participant’s image alone and any product or service of any third party, without his/her separate written consent.

Accredited Persons may take or record still and moving images and/or sounds within the perimeter of the Event’s areas and venues where the Event and related events occur, as designated by the LOC (“Event Areas”), for their personal, private, non-commercial and non-promotional use, subject to compliance with the IOC Social and Digital Media Guidelines and Accredited Persons agree that the IOC shall be sole owner of any intellectual property rights (including copyright) in such content without further authorisation from, or payment or compensation to, the Accredited Persons or anyone acting on their behalf, and Accredited Persons hereby assign any rights they may have in respect of such content to the IOC. To the extent permitted by applicable laws, Accredited Persons hereby agree to waive or not to exercise any moral rights they may have in respect of such content against the LOC, the IOC and any third parties authorised by them, including without limitation the right to make derivative works or to modify the content.

Pursuant to the above, Accredited Persons acknowledge that the IOC hereby grants them a limited, non-exclusive and revocable license to use the still and moving images and/or sounds that Accredited Persons take or record within the Event Areas, provided that such use is personal, non-commercial and non-promotional and that otherwise complies with any additional IOC requirements (including the IOC Social and Digital Media Guidelines). For clarity, such limited non-exclusive and revocable license does not include or supply the consent of the person(s) appearing or recognisable in the still and moving images and/or sounds, their consent must still be obtained by the Accredited Person before taking or recording such images and/or sounds, Accredited Persons acknowledge that they are solely responsible for the use of these still and moving images and thereafter, the Participant releases the LOC, the IOC, the IOC’s Affiliates, and any third parties authorised by them (and their respective members, directors, officers, employees, volunteers, contractors or agents) (collectively, “Released Parties”) from any responsibility in connection with them.

In case of breach of the IOC Social and Digital Media Guidelines and/or any other rules or guidelines regarding the recording or making available of content, the IOC shall be entitled to take any action in order to remedy such infringement.

Participants are prohibited from: (i) taking pictures and videos and from recording audio or making any other recordings in any “Photography Prohibited Area” designated in the Event Areas and its surrounding areas, as well as in any other restricted areas designated by the LOC the IOC or any other authorised person; and (ii) collecting, disseminating, transmitting, or publishing any scores, statistics or other information related to the Event taking place within the Event Areas for any commercial, betting or gambling purpose.
